

Anna Krzyżanowska is the Head of Unit "Broadband" at DG CONNECT of the European Commission. In addition to policy activities, she is coordinating the efforts related to Connecting Europe Facility and more recently in relation to the Juncker Plan's potential investments in the digital sector. She joined the Commission in 2005 to implement a EUR10 billion loan facility for research intensive companies. She then managed the team in charge of evaluation and impact assessment of DG Information Society. Prior to this, she was a Development Director at the EFMD. She had worked seven years at the EBRD in London on financing operations in Central and Eastern Europe and in Central Asia. Anna holds a Master Degree from the Jagiellonian University and an MBA from INSEAD.